CORRIGENDUM-9

Tender specification- No.T-2363.

Name of the work:-Design, detailed engineering, supply, erection, testing & commissioning and establishment of (i) Kavathampalayam 765/400 kV AIS SS along with 765 kV & 400 kV Transmission Lines and (ii) Edayarpalayam 400/230-110 KV AIS Substation for Development of Intra-State Transmission System under tariff based competitive bidding process (TBCB) in Coimbatore Region under TBCB mode.

Sl No	Relevant Clause in RFP	Existing clause	Amendment
1	Clause 2.5- The Bidding Process: 6th para	The Qualified Bidders shall submit their Final Offer in INR on the electronic e-reverse bidding platform. Each reduction must be a minimum of 0.25% of the prevailing lowest Quoted Transmission Charges. Any reduction higher than the minimum must be in multiples of 0.25% (e.g., 0.50%, 0.75%, 1.00%, etc.) of the prevailing lowest Quoted Transmission Charges.	The Qualified Bidders shall submit their Final Offer in INR on the electronic e-reverse bidding platform. During the e-Reverse Bidding stage, the qualified bidders in RFP stage would be required to place their bids atleast 0.25% lower than the prevailing lowest bid , as long as they wish to continue in the reverse auction. "
2	Clause 2.5.3-Financial Bid (as per prescribed format at Annexure-21)-3th para	The applicable ceiling for electronic reverse bidding shall be the lowest Quoted Transmission Charges discovered from the Initial Offer received from the Qualified Bidders. The Qualified Bidders shall submit their Final Offer in INR on the electronic bidding platform. Each reduction must be a minimum of 0.25% of the prevailing lowest Quoted Transmission Charges. Any reduction higher than the minimum must be in multiples of 0.25% (e.g., 0.50%, 0.75%, 1.00%, etc.) of the prevailing lowest Quoted Transmission Charges.	"E-Bidding is the process of inviting binding final price offers from the Qualified Bidders through internet for the purpose of determination of the Successful Bidder (i.e. the Bidder who submits the lowest price Bid in the Reverse Bidding. The Qualified Bidders shall submit their Final Offer in INR on the electronic bidding platform. During the e-Reverse Bidding stage, the qualified bidders in RFP stage would be required to place their bids atleast 0.25% lower than the prevailing lowest bid , as long as they wish to continue in the reverse auction."

3	ANNEXURE (A) (Page No: 139) StageII: E-Reverse Bidding - 3th para	E-Bidding is the process of inviting binding final price offers from the Qualified Bidders through internet for the purpose of determination of the Successful Bidder (i.e. the Bidder who submits the lowest price Bid in the Reverse Bidding. The Qualified Bidders shall submit their Final Offer in INR on the electronic bidding platform. Each reduction must be a minimum of 0.25% of the prevailing lowest Quoted Transmission Charges. Any reduction higher than the minimum must be in multiples of 0.25% (e.g., 0.50%, 0.75%, 1.00%, etc.) of the prevailing lowest Quoted Transmission Charges. Such changes can be made any number of times within the Reverse Bidding period.	E-Bidding is the process of inviting binding final price offers from the Qualified Bidders through internet for the purpose of determination of the Successful Bidder (i.e.) the Bidder who submits the lowest price Bid in the Reverse Bidding. The Qualified Bidders shall submit their Final Offer in INR on the electronic bidding platform. During the e-Reverse Bidding stage, the qualified bidders in RFP stage would be required to place their bids atleast 0.25% lower than the prevailing lowest bid , as long as they wish to continue in the reverse auction."

Clarifications received after end date shall not be entertained.

--Sd—18.07.2026
Chief Engineer/Transmission